Established in 1922 by Monica Flin, El Charro Café of Tucson, Arizona is the Nation's Oldest Mexican Restaurant in continuous operation by the same family. Monica's niece, Carlotta Flores, and family directly own and operate five locations of the venerable Mexican food destination.

Chef Carlotta Flores carries on the tradition of Monica, under her guidance El Charro has become one of the most critically acclaimed restaurant in Arizona. Featuring Sonoran style and innovative Tucson style Mexican food, El Charro is truly as Gourmet magazine wrote: "A Taste Explosion".

The El Charro family is also proud to feature TOMA! our Latin entertainment and tequila bars, our full service catering division and our USDA food manufacturing plant.

Whatever your needs, El Charro and family are prepared to show you that "we are not the best because we were the oldest, we were the oldest because we were the best!"
